Monticello ownership changes hands

Berenson Pari-Mutuel, Inc., has purchased approximately 62 percent of the Class A voting stock of Monticello Raceway which was formerly owned by the Slutsky Family.

A new Board of Directors was elected consisting of Louis Stanley (Buddy) Berenson, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer; Milton Kutsher, Vice Chairman; Richard Berenson, President and Treasurer; Mary Berenson, Vice President and Dyan Watson (Mr. Berenson's daughter). Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer.

Former Board members and officers will continue on as advisors and consultants. They include: Charles Slutsky, David Slutsky, Richard Slutsky, Jeffrey Slutsky, Leo Dashin, Manuel Bogner, Paul Killian and Sidney Suisman.

"The corporate officers and new directors will serve without compensation," noted president Richard Berenson.

"I'm very happy to take over the operation of Monticello Raceway," said Buddy Berenson. "It's a beautiful track and my goal will be to increase attendance and mutuel handle."

JOHN MANZI (RIGHT) director of publicity and public relations, points out some of the features at Monticello Raceway to Joe Lando, who will be taking over as the track's general manager under new owner Buddy Berenson.

JILL DACIW, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Daciw, Aston, PA, enjoyed some sledding while visiting relatives in Carbondale last weekend. There was virtually no snow on the ground at her home near Philadelphia, so Jill thought the snow and icy conditions of Carbondale were great! (NEWS Photo)
